Biographical Sketch

Harriet Berger Koch (1924-1995) graduated in 1945 from St. Luke's Hospital School of Nursing in Chicago. She then earned a BS in biological sciences and an MA in curriculum and administration from the University of Chicago in 1946 and 1958 respectively. Koch also briefly attended Northwestern University and the Illinois Institute of Technology. She worked with educational media for most of her career including being Executive Director and Project Director for Video Nursing from 1965 – 1973. This entailed development of video-taped materials with a consortium of 20 schools of nursing. Koch wrote Militant Angel a biography of Annie W. Goodrich published in 1951.

Scope and Contents

The collection contains correspondence from Annie Goodrich to Koch written in the 1940s and 1950s, a scrapbook related to the development of the book, and several of Koch's nursing education videos from the 1980s.
